

Dear Student:

The Learning is Cool campaign is back, and we're ready to reward you for doing your very best this school year!

Cincinnati Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis, defensive tackle Domata Peko, wide receiver Laveranues Coles, cornerback Johnathan Joseph and defensive end Robert Geathers will co-host a special Academic Achievement Ceremony for all CPS students in grades 1-8 who make the "A" honor roll at least twice during the school year. Mary Ronan, your superintendent, also will join in the festivities. In order to get your invitation to this special ceremony, you must strive for excellence in all of your classes... every day.

During the year, you will be able to earn other honors and prizes for your hard work. Some of the players may even stop by your school to help you stay motivated. And remember, if you make the "A" honor roll at least twice, you'll be invited to our Academic Achievement Ceremony at Paul Brown Stadium in June 2010. Each of us will reward you, personally, with a Medal of Achievement.

All of us know that Learning is Cool. And, if you make the "A" honor roll, we'll show you just how cool learning can be.

We hope to see you at the ceremony!

Sincerely,

Mary A. Ronan
