

Assembly Programs

Insofar as possible, schools should finance assembly programs from the proceeds of other money-raising activities within the school, but they may defray all or part of the expenses of such programs by collections from pupils. Such collections shall be voluntary, and no pupil shall be denied the right to attend any program because of inability to pay. The amounts collected shall be adjusted from time to time so that no profit accrues therefrom.

Adopted: 7/10/44

Revised: 6/22/64

9/22/75

Rescinded: 9/13/07

Reinstated: 11/7/07