

Locks and Keys

Locks may be purchased and sold by schools at a price not exceeding the cost of the lock plus no more than ten percent for handling and transportation services.

Locks may be lent to pupils on a deposit basis, the deposit not to exceed the sale price of the lock as defined above. The deposit, less a maximum of twenty percent for each year of use, shall be refunded upon return of the lock in good condition.

Proceeds from the sale of locks and unrefunded deposits may be used for the replacement of locks and shall be accounted for separately from other sales and deposits. Surplus funds may be deposited to the general fund of the school.
