SCPA Student Publishes a Memoir

Chelsey S., a senior in the writing program at the School for Creative and Performing Arts, recently published her memoir, titled Chelsey, through Health Communications Incorporated Publications. It is currently being distributed throughout the country. She will host a book signing on Friday, September 25, 2009, at Women Writing for a Change in Silverton.

Oyler School Hosts Roundtable on the Importance of Childhood Nutrition

Representatives of the Freestore Foodbank, Ohio Association of Second Harvest Foodbanks and Oyler School recently hosted a roundtable discussion to highlight the importance of meeting the nutritional needs of low-income Ohio children. During the event, Congressman Steve Driehaus, local leaders and community stakeholders discussed ways to sustain current programs – such as the Child Nutrition Act – and meet the future needs of Ohioans struggling to survive in today's economic climate. The event coincided with the second annual Hunger Action Month, an effort by Feeding America and local food banks to raise awareness of the fight against hunger.
