

Eve Bolton

Profile

Personal Information

Born June 11, 1951 in Cincinnati, Ohio

Current resident of College Hill

Attended Cincinnati Public Schools K-12

- Sayler Park and College Hill elementaries
- Schwab Junior High School
- Graduated from Aiken Senior High School in 1969

Graduated in 1973 from the College of Wooster, attaining BA in Political Science and an Ohio Teaching Certificate for Political Science and History

Professional Experience

Eve has been a Social Studies teacher in Wyoming City Schools for thirty-five years.

During that time, Eve has been the Wyoming Theatre Arts Director and Wyoming Teachers' Union President.

Public Service and Neighborhood Experience

Eve has been active in politics and neighborhood redevelopment for a number of years.

Eve is the former President of the College Hill Redevelopment Corporation, Mt. Healthy City Council District and At-Large member.

Eve was the first woman elected to an executive office in Hamilton County when she was elected County Recorder.