PREPARING STUDENTS
FOR LIFE

Through Academic Achievement · Personal Well-Being · Career Readiness

“Strong leadership and partnership, at both the administrative and governance levels, are needed when it comes to preparing our students,” said Superintendent and CEO Iranetta Rayborn Wright. “As we approach each day with a focus on excellence, I look forward to working with President Ben Lindy, Vice President Brandon Craig and our new Committee Chairpersons. Our district is poised to lead marked improvement in overall student outcomes.”

The changes in Board Leadership take effect immediately.

“I’m honored to serve as Board President,” said Ben Lindy, re-elected CPS Board of Education President, “and I look forward to continuing the hard work we do for Cincinnati Public Schools by providing strong policies and resources, and representing our families when it comes to governance, oversight and leadership. I would also like to thank Board Member Carolyn Jones for her past service as Vice President.”

CPS Board of Education recently passed Goals and Guardrails to guide the district's strategy for improving student outcomes over the next several years. For more information about the CPS Board of Education visit www.cps-k12.org/Board
