

Dater's Harvest Moon Festival
Saturday, October 29th, 2022 - 4pm-7pm

In 1999, the Dater Montessori community gathered with friends, food, and fun to celebrate the Harvest Moon, beginning of fall, and a new school year, thus founding The Harvest Moon Festival.

Our indoor festival takes place on the first floor of Dater Montessori and is a success because our community comes together to volunteer to run games, help with concessions in the cafeteria, sell tickets, and donates candy, small prizes, and trinkets!

Our 9-12 (4th-6th grader) group sells themed raffle baskets. All proceeds from basket sales go to the 2023-2024 6th graders to help offset the cost of the Camp Joy trip. 9-12 families, please sign up to work a shift in the cafeteria, inflatables, or raffle baskets.

Use the signup genius below to sign up for a shift!

Families with children in the lower levels (3-6 and 6-9) should sign-up with their child's room parent. Any questions, please reach out to

The CakeWalk needs YOUR HELP!!

We need our Dater Bakers to make cookies, cakes, pies, brownies and other assorted pastries or sweets to donate to the game. Any size combinations are great – 6 cookies to a bag, square cakes, 4-6 cupcakes, full pies, bite sized samples. Students who play the game but who aren't the last man standing still get to pick a single baked good or candy. So, get those recipes out and ready to bake for one of our favorite games!

As a reminder, no nuts in the baked goods.

Baked goods can be dropped off to the front office on Friday 10/28 until 6pm or brought directly to the auditorium on Saturday 10/29 starting at 3pm.

Special thanks to Liz Whiting-Magg & Deanna Gray from Ms. Marrero's room for coordinating!
