Cincinnati Public Schools Athletics

Note to CPS Student-Athletes and Parents,

CPS Athletics would like to share the following updates for winter sports.

1. Senior Recognition

- a. CPS Athletics is working in collaboration with high school athletic departments to identify ways to highlight our senior student-athletes. This includes hosting senior nights earlier in the season, using district resources to film special senior videos and more.
 - i. Student-athletes and families are encouraged to work with their athletic directors to find creative ways to honor and recognize senior student-athletes.

2. Winter Sports Seasons

- a. Ohio High School Athletic Association
 - i. The OHSAA has shared a survey with high school athletic administrators in regards to the potential of delaying the start of winter sports seasons.
 1. CPS Athletics will continue to monitor the situation, while staying in contact with all student-athletes, families and programs to provide important updates and adjustments.
 2. As of November 17, 2020 the plan is to continue forward with the season.
- b. Similar to the fall season, we will begin the winter sports season with no spectators (exceptions below) until further notice.
 - i. College coaches, recruiters and media will be permitted to all events.
 - ii. CPS Athletics is supporting all high school athletic departments with resources to live stream all games/events. Talk to your athletic director for more information.
